My favorite memories of Mrs. Georgia first include Mr. Buster and how sweet they were to me. They also include her hearty laughter and love of fun. I loved being around her at church. What a legacy she has left us all. God bless you.

“ Johnson Family, I didn't know her too well, but my Mom did. I often saw her out at lunch when Mother and I would be out. She was always full of life and she and Mother would talk like two long lost friends. I lost my Mom just last week. I know she and Mrs, Georgia are talking in glory and proud to be there! I know you will miss her dearly. I will be praying for you all . Try to remember all the good times you spent together and I pray this difficult time will be made easier through GOD'S grace.

Sincerely,

Linda Stewart Knorr

“ To the family of Mrs. Johnson:
My heart goes out to you, with the passing of your mother. She was an inspiration to me during my years at Emmanuel. Always made many people she spoke to leave with a smile. She will be greatly missed here, but have a warm welcome at heavens' gate.
My deepest condolences.
