“ I never saw Mr. Jerry anywhere, that he did not come up to me and give me a hug or say something very thoughtful. He has always been such a wonderful person. Paulette I know it is hard for you right now, but just remember that he lives on in you and in your children and grandchildren. Tony and I will continue to pray for all of you. “ *Jerry was the oldest of us six children. He was always kind, patient and soft spoken. I really appreciated our visits and talks over the past few months. It was evident that he was content to be at home with his loving family. Paulette took such good care of him. May he rest in peace as he joins his family in heaven. Roy and Woody don't forget to plant the peas. He promised I could get some this summer.
Love,
Linwood (baby brother)*

“ *Woody, Paulette, & family,
Uncle Jerry was one of the kindest men I've ever known. He will be greatly missed here, but knowing that Uncle Jerry is together with Aunt Ola again can give us some peace. They were so in love and that was always apparent. He'd always say, "Yes dear" whenever she had a "honey-do" list for him. We love you all and will keep you in our prayers during the difficult days ahead.
