“ I remember you coming to my softball games and cheering me on. You’d always give me a few dollars after to go get my favorite snack from the concession stand. Also it didn’t matter how old I got you’d always call me your tootiebug. When I was younger you’d let me go through your makeup stash and I could have anything I wanted. I’ll never forget how you’d always dance to Shakira’s “Hips don’t lie.” You we’re so fun to be around and you were the kind of grandma that I want to be one day!

Last thing when I was pregnant you’d call me about every other afternoon when I was at work. I started looking forward to those calls because as the end of my pregnancy came closer I was getting more and more stressed out about making sure my house was ready. You’d always listen to me and tell me that you were proud of me. There were times that I cried and you always knew how to comfort me. My only true regret is not getting to Hartsville to let you meet Natalie. Losing you has taught me the tough lesson of not knowing when it will be the last time you talk to, hug or kiss someone.

“ Oh how I will miss cutting up with you! You were always more like my aunt than a cousin. Heather and I have had great trips with Jack and Rhonda over the past few years and you are responsible for us carrying on this part of the family. I know last year you told me you were very grateful we have been close and smiled huge! I promise we will continue on taking care of each other. Tell everyone on those golden streets I said hello and will rejoice when we all see each other again! Love you Jane❤️

“ I have so many great memories of and with her, but the one I'll forever hold on to is how loving she was. She not only loved Kayla, she loved all of my children and called them her grandkids ❤️ I don't think I ever said Thank you out loud to her but I pray she knew how much that meant to me! They all loved her and we will miss her.

What can I say, Jane was more than a niece, she was more like a sister. In fact we were very close and I loved her dearly. I will miss her more than I can say, always in my heart, I love you. Finally you don't need that trach and machines.
