

Dr. Glenn Johnston Lawhon Jr.

July 3, 1925 - February 16, 2017

Services for Dr. Glenn J. Lawhon, Jr., 91, who died peacefully on Thursday, February 16, 2017, will be held at 2 o'clock on Saturday, February 18, 2017, in St. Luke United Methodist Church. The Rev. Eugene Feagin and The Rev. Danny Holley will officiate with a visitation to follow at the church. The family will receive friends from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. on Friday, February 17, 2017, at Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home.

Dr. Lawhon, Glenn was born in Florence, SC. He was the son of the late Dr. Glenn Lawhon Sr. and Eunice Clyburn Lawhon. He graduated from Clemson University in 1946 and went on to receive his doctorate in veterinary medicine from the University of Pennsylvania. He did serve in the US Army prior to graduating. He then moved back to Hartsville, SC and joined his father in practice in March of 1947. He continued to practice until May 2012 when he sold his practice and retired. Dr. Lawhon has served in many civic organizations including Civitan Club of Hartsville. He served as Hartsville Mayor for 12 years and was also a founder of the Hartsville Museum. He served on the IPTAY Board of Directors at Clemson University for many years and was past president of IPTAY. He served on the Lander University Board of Directors for several years as well. Dr. Lawhon was well known for his kind spirit and big heart. He cared deeply for his family, friends, and community. His favorite pastimes included reading, playing tennis, and watching Clemson sports, especially Clemson football. His family was an integral part of his life, and he loved sharing stories and bragging about his children's accomplishments. Even though his journey has ended, we all know his legacy will remain. We know now that he is running through the pearly gates because he has waited a long time to get back on his feet.

Surviving is his wife of 35 years, Kathy Mozingo Lawhon of Hartsville, SC; children, Glenn Lawhon III (Yana) of Columbia, SC, Ellen Purvis (Brant) of Columbia, SC, Lewis Lawhon of Hartsville, SC, William Lawhon of Hartsville, SC, Maggie Flowers (Bradley) of Hartsville, SC, Jane Leaird (Justin) of Jefferson, SC, Katherine Lawhon of Hartsville, SC, and Renee Lawhon of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren, Christopher and Glenn Gifford, Garrett, Zane, and Alexandra Lawhon, Colton, Weston, and Dalton Flowers, and Johnston Leaird; great-grandchildren, Robert and Logan Lawhon.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Martha Lawhon.

Memorials may be made to Clemson IPTAY, 200 Avenue of Champions, Clemson, SC 29634.

“ Dr. Lawhon was a wonderful vet and friend. He was a good friend. Had a great sense of humor. Just was always there when you needed him to take care of a dear pet family member. He made me laugh when there were times it was hard to laugh. So sorry to hear of his passing. Praying and thinking of you all. William, know I'm thinking of you ❤️

“ Dr. Lawhon was always a part of our extended family in our neighborhood and was a regular on the Timberlake field football games. What great memories of someone who made such a difference in Hartsville. Not many individuals get to alleviate suffering of our beloved animals and do it with such skill and caring. God bless the lawhon family and know that he will be remembered fondly forever.

“ Every since I was a little girl, Dr. Lawhon and Dr. S were in my life. They helped teach me how to care and love animals. Even being a farm girl, what they taught me was different. I always felt special because I got to see the animals being groomed when I would go. Dr. Lawhon's love for animals, his Clemson Tigers and his family was real. I will always remember these things about him.

To me wherever I would see Dr. Lawhon, he was the same. I loved him, his VetFamily and his Family now.

Love to you all and your families during this time....
