Gregg, this world will never be the same without you. I was honored to serve as your big Sissy and I loved you more than you will ever know. I thank God for you and thank Him for taking you home where your tired body can be pain-free and healthy again; the way I always want to remember you. You were so talented as an artist both in cars and in music. This world lost a precious son, brother, friend, father, and husband but by now you finally have had the pleasure of meeting your father for the first time. You are in God's hands now and I will miss you so very much.

Love,
Sissy (Faye)

“ So deeply saddened to hear of Greg's passing-I was very fond of him as I knew him from one of the financial institutions I was employed... I remember him coming into the bank with a yellow shirt with palm trees or some design on it and wearing sunglasses; from that day on I called him "Hollywood"..He was a very special and fun guy; so privileged to have known him.
