Gretel "OMA" Heidrich Moody, was born in Berlin, Germany on September 5, 1935. In 1959, she met and shortly after married the love of her life, Lt. Adger Eugene Moody, coming overseas, making their home in Hartsville, SC. Here they started a family and raised their three boys. She was a true homemaker and the "Rock" of her small family. She enjoyed being in the yard, working in her flower beds, visiting with friends and taking care of her fur baby "Schatzi". Her greatest joy was being a mother to her children and being "OMA" to her grand & great-grandkids. They were her world, and she lived her life through and for them.

Serving as pallbearers will be Dale Flowers Sr., Dale Flowers Jr., Hunter Moody, Davey Moody, Adam Starling, Ronnie Drew.

We love you / Ich liebe dich Oma!!

“ Mrs. Moody was one of the sweetest ladies I was blessed to meet. She would come to Bilo and we would talk for a while often. She loved her children and grand kids and Chachi (her dog) so much. Be comforted to know that she was so proud, and thankful of her family. My heart is heavy today, but praying that god will comfort you in this time of loss.
