“ Shannon:

*Years ago when my late daughter, Caroline Terry, brought you into my home to borrow a camera for you for someone's wedding, none of us knew what was to come in the years ahead... "Such is life". My heart goes out to you and your entire family. Losing Caroline, seeing her suffer and not being able to "protect and save" my precious little girl has been the most difficult thing in life to bear. I cannot imagine the grief you are feeling from the loss of your brother. Your words to him on this site are moving... Please remember that just because he is no longer with you that your love for him will never end. Hold fast to your memories and the love you shared... They are your and yours alone. Your family will remain in my prayers in the days ahead as I pray that God will guide you to find comfort in HIM during your journey through your grief.
