“ Having Dad as a Father was a greatest gift. Dad was a great father and a teacher he taught me how to live, love and how to do for myself.

I am very numb of him being gone. I am missing him terriably.

May his soul rest and his spirit be with us always.

“ I loved my grandfather very much. He was a good man, a fair man, an honest man. He always treated my sisters and I with much love and care. I will always remember him as goodnatured and whole hearted. He never had a mean word for anyone and he always enjoyed a good joke. He will be missed very much by myself, my sisters, my mother Kathy, my father Ralph and my uncle Billy and aunt Eileen. We all love you papa.##imported-begin##Shawn Batchelder##imported-end##

“ A boy's memories of his Cub Scout Pinewood Derby remain with him always.
As long as we live in the memories of those who loved us, we are never gone.
Mr. Harvey lives in the hearts of each of the Bonanno's. He truly made the world a better place.

“ Dear Jan, Debbie, John, and family-

I am heartbroken in a profound way to hear about Harvey, I will treasure the memories of him that I have, and thank God that his path and mine crossed. What a great guy; I hope that young John will always remember his grandfather as a giant among men. May his memory live for a blessing.
