“ Harvey was a wonderful singer and an amazing guitarist. I will always cherish the time we spent singing and playing music together. Although he was only a kid whenever I knew him, I watched Harvey as he developed his talent and love for music. He had the voice of Conway Twitty and other well known singers as well. Whenever I think back, I'm not sure he knew just how talented he was. RIP Harvey!!

Love, Ex- Aunt Virginia!

“ I had known Harvey back in the 70's. We were so young then. Just going to the movies uptown or skating at the old rink in PineRidge, to Pettys. I haven't seen him in years. I didn't recognize him, but he knew who I was. Gosh things were so simple, but yet so amazing and will forever be the best generation ever!! R.I.P.. 🙏🙏
