“ FRANCES, BOBO , AND SUSAN IT HAS BEEN AN HONOR AND PRIVLEDGE TO HAVE BEEN PART OF CHESTER'S LIFE THESE PAST 17 1/2 YEARS. HE WAS NOT ONLY A FRIEND AND FELLOW OFFICER TO SOME OF US, BUT HE WAS ALSO LIKE A FATHER. MYSELD AND OTHER OFFICERS IN CHESTERFIELD COUNTY LEARNED FROM CHESTER HOW TO BE THE VERY BEST AND TO ALWAYS TO LOOK OUR BEST WHEN PERFORMING OUR DUTIES. FRANCES WHATEVER OR WHENEVER YOU NEED SOMETHING JUST CALL AND CONSIDER IT DONE, WE ARE HERE FOR YOU.

LOVE YOU GUYS ALWAYS##imported-begin##GARRY AND BRANDI DEEVER##imported-end##

“ To the family of "A GREAT COP"

I know that words can not express how you feel and I am sorry for your loss. God shared Chester with us for alot of good years and during this time he touched lives that will never forget him. He was a devoted person in every way. He treated all alike old or new in law enforcement. I knew him through my years in law enforcement and he was a friendly, helpful and kind person. We shall never forget his greetings of "Hey Cuz" and we shall not forget him. Memories are made to keep near to your heart and to drawn from those memories when time seems to stand still. We are praying for you and know that God loves you.

“ Dear Frances,Susan,Bobo,Jeff, and Anna,

My prayer is that God will give you peace during this most difficult time. You are blessed to have had this kind,easy-going, loving man in your lives.

Almost any situation could be told with a humorous twist when Hayward was telling it. I am sure he is entertaining God's angels with some adventurous yarn even now.

May his memory and God's love sustain you.

“ Mrs. Frances, BoBo and Susan, I share with you the lose of Mr. Hayward. I always enjoyed the times we talked on the radio! There was never a dule moment while he was on the air. I will "always" remember the good times, going down the river from Cheraw to the Ocean. I stop and look at the pictures often. I could see how happy he was along the way. We all felt like a bunch of kids. I will never forget these good memories. I treasure the true friendship we had. You all are in my prayers and hope we can stay in touch. “ Dear Mrs. Frances and family, our hearts are grieving with you over the passing of Mr. Hayward. We loved him and thought the world of him. He was a very good friend, amature radio operator. We enjoyed every conversation we had with him, he made us laugh so much telling his stories. We're going to miss him as we know you do already.
