“ I have a lot of special memories of my Aunt Helen. I spent a lot of time there growing up with my cousins. I remember her cooking on a kerosene stove. No indoor plumbing and an ice box. She kept a clean home for her family and took in other peoples clothes and washed starched and ironed themnto helpnends meet. She worked hard to provide for her family and never complained because there was no need to. That was just life. I didn't go see Aunt Helen after I got grown but I never forgot her or her strength. Rest now Aunt Helen you will surely be missed.
