

Mrs. Helen Ludlam Yengel

October 2, 1922 - March 16, 2022

A Memorial Service to honor the life of Mrs. Helen Ludlam Yengel, 99, will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 20th, 2022, at Lakeview Baptist Church. The Rev. Ken Hughes will officiate and the family will receive friends following the service. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home and Crematory are caring for the family.

Mrs. Yengel entered into rest on Wednesday, March 16th, 2022. Born in Conway, SC, she was a daughter of the late James N. and Emily Blanton Ludlum. She was a member of Lakeview Baptist Church. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother and loved children dearly. She operated a daycare from her home for many years. Mrs. Yengel enjoyed knitting and crocheting and was affectionately known as "The Knit Whit." Many people in the community received hand made gifts from her over the years including many children's Christmas stockings. She continued using her skills even at the age of 98 by making prayer shawls. She was the matriarch of her family that held them together.

Surviving are her children, Tommy Yengel (Nita) of St. Louis, MO, Patty Reimold (Doug) of Hartsville, SC, Ralph Yengel (Nancy) of Hartsville, SC, Tina Lanier (Raymond) of Beaufort, SC; 15 grandchildren; over 35 great-grandchildren; several great-great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, William H. "Bill" Yengel; son, William "Billy" Yengel, Jr.; sisters, Earlake Baker, Dora V. Corbet, Marcel Austin; brothers, James Ludlum, A.R. Shelley.

Memorials may be made in her honor to Lakeview Baptist Church, 202 Lakeview Blvd., Hartsville, SC 29550.

“ Dear family I am so sorry to hear of Ms Yengels passing. She was such a staple in my sister and my life. She lived in the same neighborhood with as many of the children she kept. She was a wonderful lady and to have lived as long as she did just says that God had many things for her to do here on Earth.
