“ I would like to express my sympathy to each of you during this trying time. The loss of a loved one is a time that has no comparison. Know that your pain and heartache are not unseen – God feels your pain and knows your grief. My prayer for each of you is that His grace will surround you and that His love will begin to offer comfort through the outpouring of support of those you love.##imported-begin##Brian Gandy##imported-end##

“ Carole, Ronnie, Julie and family,

I was saddened to hear of the loss of Helen, your mother. She was a special lady whom I fondly remember during my life as a caring and loving person. She was always warm and gracious to me and I will remember her fondly.

My love and prayers are with you!
