“ Robbie, So sorry about Dickie we all had great times growing up and grandma Kate's house getting together singing and then in later years playing cards. Im so glad that we got to spend time with him at Patsy's when Franklin passe. We laughed like the old days and I kissed him I the head and we told each other that we loved each other. Our family is thinniing out and miss everyone. I will miss him cause he always showed up. I here for you !I love you and all our family! Wendy
