The Howle Family, my deepest condolences for the lost of your loved one. Mr. Howle from the day I met him always had a way of making me smile. His love for building things & a beautiful yard was something we had in common, oh yeah, and his wonderful daughter Maxine, my true friend. Losing a loved one is never easy, but knowing he's with our Heavenly Father in Heaven should bring you comfort. I want to thank you for sharing him with me. When I sit and watch "Big Bang theory,".. I shall think of him in his favorite recliner... chuckling away.

We the BeBe Gardner family is so sorry in the loss of your dad and a wonderful Christian man. Since a child young child he always made me feel apart of the family with playing with Mitchell. He built my first beautiful house and his quality and beauty stands today. Being neighbors after our dad died in 1981 Mr. Howard developed a great relationship with our mom helping her in any way she needed and they stayed committed to help each other. We love you and will miss your dad 🙏🙏*
