

Mrs. Inez Kirby Crowell

November 3, 1926 - September 19, 2022

Mrs. Inez Kirby Crowell, 95, widow of James C. Crowell, Sr., peacefully departed for Heaven on Monday, September 19, 2022.

A graveside funeral service to honor her life will be held at 11 o'clock on Friday, September 23, 2022, in Westview Memorial Park Cemetery, with the Rev. Dr. Gregory B. Boyd and The Rev. Dr. Carl Morris officiating. The family will receive friends immediately following the service. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home are caring for the family.

Born in Florence County, she was the seventh child and second daughter of Elias Kirby and Cora Brown Kirby. She was predeceased by her only sister, Leano K. Warr, and by all eight of her brothers: Felder, Marion, Cecil, Rudolph, Randall, Raymond, Roland, and James Kirby.

Mrs. Crowell was also predeceased by a son, Christopher Eric Crowell. She leaves a son, James C. (Chip) Crowell, Jr., a daughter, Charlene C. (Charli) Moore, both of Florence, a stepdaughter, Jeannie Plyler of Orlando, three granddaughters, Suzie Moore, Lori Briggs, and Jody Krebs, three great-grandsons, two great-granddaughters, and eight great-great grandchildren.

A titled beauty queen as a teenager, Mrs. Crowell attended Coker College. In 1954, she and her husband formed The Credit Bureau of Hartsville, which expanded to four additional offices before their retirement.

She was an active member of the First Baptist Church, where her primary area of ministry was helping to raise money for missions through the annual Christmas Bazaar, one year being so excited to have baked over 30 cakes sold at the Bazaar. For many of her years as a businesswoman, she was also an active member of the Pilot Club of Hartsville and the Hartsville Chamber of Commerce, planning many special events, especially those associated with making the Coker College students feel welcome in Hartsville.
