“ Dustin, Denise, and Landon...I am so sorry to hear about little Trevor. I hate that I never got the chance to meet him, but he was a trooper. God called him home so he wouldn't have to suffer anymore. You guys have been so strong through all of this and I just pray that God provides you with the comfort you need to get through this tough time in your life. There aren't words to express my sorrow for you guys. We are right here if you need us. And you will continue to be in our Thoughts and prayers as you have been for the past few months!! we love you!! “ Dear Tedder family and Mixon family, I am so , so sorry for your loss. Words can not begin to express this kind of pain. I know it has to be the worse. We all had such faith and hope, but God had another plan. We all just have to trust God , and know that Trevor is with Him now. Your sweet little boy is in the arms of Jesus, and he is whole now, no pain, no swelling, just at peace with God. And you know we have that hope that we will see him in heaven again. My prayer for all of you now is that God will wrap His arms around you , and give you that comfort and sweet peace that can only come from Him. We love you all. Please call me if you want to talk. God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Cecil & Debbie Gainey##imported-end##

“ Denise & Dustin,

Words can not begin to describe the feelings that Clyde and I feel for you during your time of need. You were granted an Angel for a very short time, and God saw a greater need to call him home to Heaven. I know that words can never take the pain away that you are going through, and I wish that I could carry this burden for you. Please know that if there is anything that we can do for either of you just let us know. We love you, and will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Kimberly McCorkle##imported-end##
