“ I am very upset to learn of the passing of this great lady. I grew up with some of her grandkids and have a close relationship with nana and the family. I truly loved this lady and look forward to seeing her again in heaven. To the family, I will pray for your peace and comfort during this time. I love you all!!

“ Dear Burr Family,
Raymond and I read with sadness about the passing of Mrs. Irene. She has been such a part of our congregation for so long! Our prayers are with your family as you get through the next few days, but then the future as well without your loved one. She will be waiting for you.
