“ You will be missed Uncle Jack! You were the last remaining brother of the Alford family, and we loved you so. You so enjoyed the lunch at Pam's the last time we got you out for the Veterans Day celebration, I remember how much we laughed at how much you ate! You were the sweetest, most gracious man and my Mom (Doris) used to tell me stories about how you would put each other to sleep when you were both young. You and she were the babies of the family, and what stories you could both tell. Godspeed to you my dear Uncle! I loved you and I will truly miss you!

So long Uncle Jack. See you again one of these days. I am reminded of my Dad's story about you and he ending up on some island in the Pacific at the same time during WW II. Brothers reunited! Tell "Jetus" hello for me! God bless.
