“ How saddened I was to hear of your loss.
I just saw his picture when I logged on and it brought back so many special memories of our high school days.
Sometimes is only seems like yesterday seeing and laughing with all of you.
I know what a wonderful husband and father he was and how much he will be missed. I am praying and thinking of you all.
Always my love,

“ I wish to express my sympathy for all of Jack's family. I remember how he was always ready to help our family and how much it meant to have him meet us at the airport when we had to come home from Germany. And before that he was there for Mom and Dad. He leaves memories that should make you proud. I know God will bring you all through his.
