“ Jackie shared holiday meals with us. He loved old fashioned banana pudding and he loved my homemade chili pablanos. He built my first cabin at Country Cabins Pet Resort in South Carolina and our front deck. We often talked about the Lord. We had a conversation once about final arrangements. I told him I always looked to the Word and I thought of how God himself buried Moses. Jackie is a remarkable man and I feel an empty spot on the earth. But I have no doubt he is in Glory with our Lord Jesus Christ.

“ What a joy to attend church with Brother Jack! He was faithful to church, and everyone loves Brother Jack! He always gave my grand babies candy and gum. He was a true friend. We had many laughs! We enjoyed our choir time together, and the many projects we accomplished together. He'll surely be missed!
