“ To family and friends of Jimmy. I was so sad to hear about Jimmy. I attended Coker College and soon met Jimmy. He was so sweet and like all of his friends just loved him to pieces!! He would help me with gas so that I could go home during the gas crisis as well as friends that would come to Hartsville to visit me. Jimmy and I would talk politics on the computer back in days and I always loved to hear his opinion!! I used to tell him he should run for office. A couple of years ago, I called him in Florence and we met for lunch and talked about Hartsville and our lives. I know he was a wonderful Christian and I was so happy that he was doing well. I will miss him. I will pray for God's help for his family during this time. With Deepest Sympathy Pat Fowler Ray

In 1974 there was a gas crisis. It was hard to get a fill-up. I was leaving Hartsville in the last attempt "to find myself". Jimmy hooked me up with enough fuel and extra gas cans to carry us a long way. He made me park on a side street early in the mourning and gave me the sign(you were allowed only so many gals.) Without Jimmy's help and support I don't if i would have stuck it out. Jimmy was a good friend (2 yrs. older) but we had fun times(swimming Prestwood lake, tennis, ping pong, pool)
That tank of gas Jimmy gave me changed my whole life. I made a whole new life with my wife and son where we haved lived in Sarasota, FL since 1974. I will always remember that smile of his.

“ Jimmy and I were classmates at HHS and graduated the class of '66. He was always full of life and had something funny to say. I saw him in Florence a few months ago and had quite a conversation with him. I was so glad that he had made changes for the best in his life. He was very happy and glad to be alive!!!!This world will miss Jimmy, as I know his family will. I will be praying , that GOD will grant you the grace to get through this difficult time. I ask you to remember all the good times you spent together and keep them fresh in your mind, and smile. He would have liked that.

Sincerely,

“ I never did See Jimmy when he did not have a smile on his face or a joke. May of this year we had a family reunion and he always joked and wanted to know if Rudy my husband was going to sing ! When we were little and would have family gatherings he would chase the girls around with his eye lids turned over , only he could do that ! God bless you Jimmy !

*Debbie,
We sure did love Jimmy. These pictures bring back lots of fun memories. At Carolina Elementary all the kids followed him around on the playground. It was like an army and he was captain fun. You had to see it to believe how everyone was drawn to him. He sure was special.
