“ Jimbo and I met for the first time in the early 80s. He has been one of my best friends since that first meeting. Our friendship was special because we could count on each other for anything. I have been saddened since I got the news but will always treasure the good times we spent over the years. I'm gonna miss you brother, T-man

“ I grew up two houses down from my first cousins Belinda, Willie and Jimmy. Jimmy was close in age to my younger brothers Teddy and Gerry. They were like triplets and were so close as little boys. There were thirteen of us cousins so we had some great time growing up in Olanta. I am so very sorry for your loss, he is gone way too soon.
