“ Hi daddy it's Candy (or as you so fondly nicknamed me Pete..lol). I miss you daddy. I got your message Christmas day and I still have it on my phone..not ready to erase it yet. I have to confess I have cried since you left and I know you wouldn't want me to but it's hard ya know. I have always been your baby girl and you have always been my hero and trust me you still are. You are the strongest man I know but over the years I have also seen your heart and the sweet side of my daddy. I'm so proud of you..I always have been and always will be. You fought long and hard and now it's time for you to rest. So fuss with Aunt Net,talk racing with uncle Mike,let granny make you some bisquits and have Pa talk your ear off and love him for it. I will miss you old man and just know I will try to laugh through my tears because that's what you would want. I love you daddy...Always.

*Feel no guilt in laughter,
He knows how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile
That he's not here to share.*

*You cannot grieve forever,
He would not want you to.
He'd hope that you would carry on
The way you always do.*

*So talk about the good times
And the ways you showed you cared.
The days you spent together,
All the happiness you shared.*

*Let the memories surround you,
A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
A time, an hour, a day.*

That brings him back as clearly

*As though he were still here,
And fills you with the feelings
That he is always near.*

*For if you keep those memories
You will never be apart
And he will live forever
Locked safe within your heart*

“ Shane--I am so sorry to learn of your loss. I got to know him when I was married to Joe Medlin and Alvin worked for him. You used to come with him some times as a little boy. The last time I saw the two of you was when I was working at the Landmark Inn and you all came in for the weekend (that was four years ago). He loved you very much! You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead.
