

Mr. James Leroy Kinsley

February 2, 1958 - July 3, 2020

A graveside funeral service for Mr. James Leroy Kinsley, 62, will be held at 11:00 am on Tuesday, July 7, 2020 in Magnolia Cemetery. The Rev. Steve Winburn will officiate.

Mr. Kinsley died peacefully on Friday, July 3, 2020. Born in Frankfurt, Germany, he was a son of the late Melvin George Kinsley and Esther Emma Jorgensen Kinsley. He graduated from Eisenhower High School, Lawton, OK, and served six years in the U. S. Marine Corps. He was in law enforcement for seven years, was employed with Interstate Brands, and was retired from Pepsi. He was a retired member of the Hartsville Rescue Squad and was a member of the Dive Team. He enjoyed being involved with Ducks Unlimited for many years and had an ongoing relationship with his Harley, "Duece."

Surviving are his wife of 37 years, Deborah "Debbie" L. Kinsley; daughter, Cameren Michelle Kinsley; grandson, Baylor Cruz Herhily.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Sutton Marie Kinsley; siblings, Sherry Griggs, Karen Kinsley, Carol Logan, Melvin Kinsley Jr., Robert Kinsley.

Memorials may be made to the Marine Toys for Tots, 18251 Quantico Gateway Dr., Triangle, VA 22172, or the National Organization for Rare Disorders (NORD), 1779 Massachusetts Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20036.

“ I miss you Dad. I continuously wait for you to show up unannounced at my front door just to say “hi” and say “I’m just checking on ya, do you need anything”. I counted on you for everything and you knew it and didn’t mind a bit. I love you so much, give Sutton a hug for me.

Yes, Chuck and I will forever remember Jim's kindness and dedication to the rescue squad. He was a straight up man that never went back on his word, and was always there when we needed him. Now God needs him more. We will never forget you Jim, RIP friend. Our prayers and sincere sympathy are for the family.
