I meet James through Angels class '71. He was the brother from a different mother. I have truly enjoyed our friendship. The ranger loved to fish , while we were fishing he would walk up to unknown people and tell them crazy things (FICTON) about me. We always enjoyed our time together ! Can't wait until our next trip! I know I will catch the big one!! Anglea & I & the staff of Ruths send our prayers RIP RANGER Miss & love you!

“ What a wonderful man and friend to so many. I came to know Mr. James through my husband and quickly grew to love him like so many others. I am sure there is a heck of a celebration in heaven for him. He will be missed by so many but there is hope in knowing we will see him again. Prayers for the heart aches but he lives on in everyone's heart. God lift you up. Sincerely, Alex and LeVeta Morrison
