“ Floyd was my first cousin. I always knew him by that name. We always enjoyed his great big smile and always very humorous and always made a point to see us when we were in from Louisiana. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family##imported-

“ My heart goes out to all of you.
As you know our family just went though the same. I know its hard to understand at this time. But just know that he was loved by all. And prayers & family will get you though this. Just hold on to your family when times are hard an all the good times you had with him. May God Bless Your Family.
