“ Oh, gosh, Cherish! You and your Daddi were so kind to us during our mini-vacay in Myrtle Beach in 2015. Little did I know, at that time, that I would lose my own Papa in just under 3 months. From the large table full of crab claws, beer on the beach, and the look on his face when that jellyfish decided he preferred your Daddi's leg over ours(sorry he got you the next day). Y'all scooped us up and treated us like we had been your best friends for years. For that, and the memories from those few short days, I'm grateful.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. You all will be in mine, and my husband's, and my mom's thoughts and prayers. My favorite memory to this day is, I was spending one of many nights over. He was talking to Brandi and I, and he pulled us on his lap and gave us this big, huge bear hug saying that he loved his girls so much, and that included me. He loved watching Planet of the Apes and Star Wars, it seemed never to fail when we wanted to watch a Disney movie he was already watching one of the two. Cherokee treated me like family. Growing up my dad wasn't there, so when I came over, and he was there, it felt so nice. I don't know if he knew how much that meant to me. Brandi has been my best friend since 3rd grade. I will never forget him, or the kindness he shared with me.
