“ Ashley, Jenna, and family, I am so sorry to hear about James. He was a wonderful, kind and very giving man. It was an honor to have known him. I know he is no longer suffering, and is watching over his family with Cricket, Bonnie and other family members that were waiting on him. I have a lot of wonderful memories that James, my late husband Roy, and I shared together, and will cherish those memories forever. I was so happy when I moved back here and went to visit him. He was indeed a wonderful man!! My thoughts and prayers are with you all. God Bless!!
