“ Dear Garland Family,
I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Garland. He was such a sweet, kind, and caring man. He would always talk to me at the hospital when we were there and even though he and my mom were sick they always had time to talk and share a smile. I know my mom was there to welcome him home and they are rejoicing with the Lord right now. If I can do anything at all for any of you I will. I will keep you all in my prayers.

I'm glad I went to see him on January 1st this year. It was a pleasure to talk with him again and an inspiration that the stroke didn't affect his cheerful personality.*

“ *I am sorry to hear about Jim's passing although we know he is out of suffering and in peace. Jim was one of my classmates of the HHS class of '59, a good friend and great football player. His father and my father were close friends, as they worked together for many years in the Electric Shop at Sonoco. I remember back in those days visiting the family with my Dad. Jim always had a great smile for everyone. He loved to visit the library, where I often saw him.

sustain you.##imported-begin##Jimmy Ballard##imported-end##*
