“ Kathy and Michael,

I just read about James Michael in the paper, and just can't keep the tears from flowing. James Michael was a such a sweet boy, and I've always thought that your family was chosen by God to care for this angel all the days he lived here on earth.

Take comfort in knowing that he is by God's side, and has gained the ability to move about freely and play in heaven like we all wished he could do while he lived among us.

Bless your family, my prayers and love to you all.

“ Dear Kathy, Michael & Murdock... I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know James Michael meant the world to all of you as all of our children do. He was a special person so therefore there is a special place in Heaven just for him. God will take over now and he will have all he needs. I know that will not replace the loss you are feeling, but just take comfort in knowing he is in God's loving arms now and forever. May God bless and be with all of you. We love you and if we can help in any way please do not hesitate to call.

“ Kathy, I am so sorry to hear of your son. It's always so sad to hear of a death, but we don't always understand why children are taken. But it's comforting to know he is with his Heavenly Father where there are no tears or pain or suffering. We should all want to be there with him, and one day we will be.
You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers today and in the days to come. I miss seeing you!

“ Once again our paths have crossed. I know God doesnt make mistakes and He still lives on the throne, but sometimes it is hard to understand why we have to go through such pain.
I know you have been a very faithful family--caring for James Michael..giving him everything he needs or could ever want. I know that from the beginning of his life, this was not what you all expected, but I do know, without a doubt, that there is NO group of people who could love enough to overcome all odds like you have. I have seen this in the past and it seems nothing has changed. I pray for peace and solace for all of you and know that Jessica will be glad to see James Michael and show him all the wonders and wholeness she has experienced in Heaven. Love you all.....Linda###imported-begin##Linda Henry###imported-end##
