“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then John 5:28 will be fulfilled that reads; "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.

“ Wayne and Family,
I have so many good memories while growing up of Janette and me. We used to get into a lot, and yet we turned out fairly good. I tried to phone her a few weeks ago and did not get an answer. I figured she was either out of town or getting more therapy. I am so, so sorry. I did not know she had made a change for the worse. Please know, you , all of the family will be in my prayers. I pray GOD will put HIS loving arms around you and give the peace you seek during this difficult time. Remember all those great times you had together as a family and cherish them. She will remain in our hearts forever. I will try to see you on Monday.
Sincerely,
Linda Stewart Knorr

“ Christopher, Laurel and Wayne, I'll be praying for all of you during this difficult time as I know you will miss Janette very much. She was always a sweet lady and your family was very special to me. Of course, I met all of you through your special mother/grandmother, Vivie. Vivie was a very dear, longtime friend from out Sonoco days and her family was pretty special too!!! May God bless and comfort all of you.

Sincerely,
Billie McManus

“ Dear Wayne and family, My thoughts and many prayers are with you and your family. Sisters are so very special and you and I certainly had two very wonderful ones in Jane and Janette.

Fondly,
Anna Williams
