“ We awake each morning to start a new day But the pain of loosing you never goes away.
We go about the things we have to do And as the hours pass we think about you. We want to call you and just hear your voice Then we remember that we have no choice For you are not there and now our heart cries Just to see you again to tell you goodbye To say we love you and always will. The day that you left we just didn't know That you were going where we couldn't go. And now all our memories of you are so dear But gosh, how we miss you and wish you were here. It so hard to tell you "goodbye." Someday we know all will be well And well see you again with stories to tell Of how you were missed and how we have grown And how good it is to finally be home. Until then our memories of you will keep near And pass them on to those who are dear. We miss you Jan
