“ Jean was a very special lady. When my mother was so sick and bed ridden, Jean would come almost everyday to the house and bring her something to eat or just to watch her to make sure the sitters did what they were suppose to do! She did the same for my brother after my Mom passed away. She was special and unique! She will be missed! My prayers are with Charmayne and Pam and the rest of her family. Jean is now in heaven with all of the Langston Family members who have gone home before her! We have the great assurance with we will see her again! To God be the Glory!

“ Many fond memories during my upbringing in Oceanside California with Jean, Pam, Charmayne and Gay. Jean, the last true southern belle. Sugar this and sugar that, a sweetness to last my lifetime. Her glamour in mind and appearance at the Marine Corps Balls inspired me to strive for truth and beauty all the days of my life. We love all of you.
