“ I've got extremely fond memories of Jeff. I know, and have met, many, many people who say they can roof a house... JEFF was the best by far. Never seen anyone that could hold a candle to him. And still had a heart of gold. May you rest well!! You will be missed 😭

“ It breaks our heart to lose you, you didn't go alone. For a part of us went with you the day God called you home. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. This journey is over as you are set to rest, you are in a safe place now. Until our next journey my beloved brother

“ Jeff was a good ol boy. I remember I was about 12 or 13 years old and we when on a family vacation. Jeff asked my Dad which was his uncle Jesse if he could go and Daddy said yes. Dad had a big conversion van we all got in the van and went to Myrtle Beach didn't book rooms before we left. We got there and no rooms. So Jeff said uncle Jesse let go down to surf side beach there a motel down there that cheap. So we when. Got there and got 3 rooms the rooms was cheap but our room have no air conditioner it was hot. Jeff said I am sorry you said cheap rooms I don't say they they was perfect. But we had a good time. Jeff was full of his self.

“ Jeffrey always had a smile on his face! I don't ever remember a time I seen him upset or not happy. He use to always pick on me when I was younger and take my nose, I would scream and cry thinking my nose was really gone.. Of course being a small child I didn't know any different!! I'll miss you Uncle Jeff, love you. Until we meet again
