Our prayers, condolences, sympathies, and love goes out to the entire Howle family. Sue was a kind and gentle woman who loved her family more than anything. She raised her family to love the Lord and their strength in Christ will help them to endure the loss of a wonderful mother, grandmother, sister, wife, and friend to so many. We will miss you dearly; but knowing you're in the embrace of our Almighty God gives us much comfort and eases the pain of our loss. Pray for the family, and especially Tom as he has lost his soulmate. Rest In Peace Thou Good and Faithful Servant. 🙏

*Met Sue and Tom in March 2009 @Cypress RV Park in Winter Haven. We instantly became friends with them and have stayed friends. Loved Sue, she was a sweet spirited lady. We have always went to visit with them at the RV Park since we left after the spring of 2017 and bought a winter home in Lakeland. But last year we got over there later and they had already left. So sad , my condolences 🙏 to Tom and all her family, we'll definitely miss Sue☐
