“ As all of you who knew mema she was such a life force. A loving, generous, kind person. How thankful I have been to have her in my life, to love and enjoy her for so many years. She and papa were the best grandparents in every way. They provided me with unconditional love and support, and with such a sense of family and love. My life has been better, and will forever be enriched because of them. To know their blood runs through me is such a comfort and source of pride. I find it heartbreaking to know I will never hug her again, hear her fabulous laugh or see her wonderful smile. She was such a treasure and joy. My love always mema.
