“ Richey Terri Sherrill and Haley. I just found out about your mom this morning. I am so very sorry for your moms passing. My memories of her go way back when she was a young beautiful woman. She loved your dad and her family and was always so kind to me. She was indeed fortunate to live a long life and see her kids and grandkids grow. In this difficult time family becomes so much more and cling to one another for support. I'm proud to call her children my friends. Love and prayers to you all.

To the Northcutt Family, So sorry for the loss your Mom, she is flying high in the sky with her Golden Winds and rejoicing with all the family members that have gone on before her. Just know she is looking down from Heaven and she will continue to watch over your family as life down here on earth continues for us but she is happy with our dear Lord and Savoir now. Rest in Peace Mrs. Northcutt.
