“ Jody, I miss you dearly. You know that you were like a brother to me and another son to my mom. She even bought extra snacks for you not too long ago because turkey season was coming in. We all miss you. I have said many times since you left us that no matter what we were laughing about or fighting about, it was always a pleasure to have you around. I find myself driving down the road and saying "A-Hody!" (your nickname) for comfort. I will never forget your response to me when I first called you that as a teenager. I will still enjoy hunting, but it will never be the same. You know I do not have the nerve to "cut the dogs off" like you. I feel that you will send my that monster buck that we never seemed to get. You always said you would like to see me kill a big buck more so than anybody else--of course, except you. That leaves only me now--I will be waiting. I know you were with me this weekend. Caroline (our niece) was so unusually loving to me, and I could not help but think that you must have sent her over to me to hug my neck some twenty times over the course of a day. I take comfort in knowing that you are "up there" with my dad. I know you and he are comparing stories about how hard-headed I am--as if neither of you know about that. Thank you for lifting my spirit and touching my heart through all of our times together. Until we meet again...Your brother,
Doug.###imported-begin##Doug Hodge###imported-end##

“ I miss you. When you called before I would always be in a meeting or too busy to answer your call. You never gave up and kept calling me forcing me to answer your phone calls. The last time you called I got so frustrated with you because you kept interrupting my meeting and when I finally answered your call - All you wanted was directions for somewhere in florence for later that afternoon. I remember calling daddy later that day frustrated and asking why couldn't you wait or just leave me a message. Dad's response was "well, You know how Jody is" I wish I could answer your call today. I would answer on the very first ring. Today while driving down the road, I was thinking about you and I asked God why did he take my brother away from me? Of course, I knew because it was your time and you fulfilled your purpose. I was thinking about you and was wondering if you were watching over me. Do you know when I Made that left turn there was a deer in the middle of the road staring right at me. That had to have been a sign from you. I know that you are among us - I feel it. You would be so proud of your memorial service. I am sure you are strutting in heaven. I find peace knowing that you are not alone in heaven. That MaMa, PaPa, Aunt Carolyn, Uncle James, Aunt Geraldine, Scottie, Gary, Timmy and our grandfather (Gaskins)that we never had the privledge to meet is there with you. I love you###imported-begin##Kevin Gaskins###imported-end##

“ My prayers are with you all. My heart hurts with you at the unexpected loss of a son, a brother, and a father. When my 17 year old brother was killed in a car wreck, the pastor said that it was good when one finished his work that God had planned for him to do on Earth. I clung to that thought, even though my family members were grieving to the point that we had trouble trying to calm and comfort each other. But, we did keep trying, for we loved each other so much, and my little sister was 9 years old at that time. “ Where do I begin...The best times in my life were the times we spent together on a lake or in the woods. Our kids grew from infants together. I could never match the times we spent together. You quickly became one of my closest friends. I felt I had two brothers. You always listened to me and helped me understand. Life could not get any better. I always had a great time when we got together. The divorce robbed everybody and I suffered more than you will ever know. I felt torn between two family members and forced to choose a side. I have suffered since.. I will always miss the times of vacations we shared, the fish we caught and the deer we bagged. You will always be considered my brother. I will never be able to replace the friendship we had. I hope you don't catch all the fish in the crystal sea before I get there. I will do my best to help your son grow up to be a good man. I will take him fishing and hunting..I will tell him all about his dad and the great times we shared...Most of all, I will tell him how much I loved you as my brother, I can't wait to see you again..

Love your brother....Tommy Heath###imported-begin##Tommy Heath###imported-end##
