

Mr. John Warren Blackwell

September 24, 1947 - September 28, 2021

It is with deep sorrow that the Blackwell family announces the death of their beloved father, John Warren Blackwell, 74.

Mr. Blackwell passed away peacefully this morning, Tuesday, September 28, 2021.

A graveside funeral service to honor and celebrate his life will be held at 11 o'clock on Saturday, October 2, 2021, at Westview Memorial Park Cemetery. The Rev. Josh McLendon will officiate, and the eulogy will be delivered by Mr. Jim Ousley. The family will receive friends at the graveside following the service. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Directors are caring for the family.

Warren was born in Florence, SC, a son of the late James Daniel Blackwell, Sr., and Amy Caston Blackwell. He was the co-owner and operator of The Vacuum Center & Antiques for 48 years.

Warren enjoyed collecting arrowheads, sketching in his sketch pad, antique furniture, eating ice cream, and watching Atlanta Braves baseball games; but, most of all -- Warren loved people.

He never met a stranger and loved to talk. Everyone received a warm welcome upon entering The Vacuum Center and Antiques. Once his health and mobility were limited, Warren became very active on Facebook. He would often post positive messages and daily encouragement for all his Facebook friends. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, who will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his loving daughters, Melissa (Skee) McAlister of Florence, SC, Ashley (Ashley) Gainey of Hartsville, SC; granddaughters, Kaylee (Jonathan) Case of Summerville, SC, Caston Gainey of Hartsville, SC; great-grandson, William Avery Case.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving wife, Willie Mae "Masie" Edwards Blackwell, and his brother, James Daniel Blackwell, Jr.

“ I'm deeply saddened to hear of Warren's passing. May he rest in peace. He was someone that I will greatly miss. He always had me laughing every time I went into that store. And it seemed to never fail when I couldn't find the item I was looking for Warren would always have it. I have many items that I purchased from him and now I will cherish them even more. He was truly a good friend. A good Christian. He was a the biggest. He gladly shared his love with everyone. Many prayers for the family for Warren loved each one of them deeply. Sincere condolences. “ I have many fond memories of Missa Wann, pretty sure that's what the workers in the downtown shop called him. I'll never forget when the store was downtown and how exciting it was to dig for treasures. Mr. Warren helped me buy my first rug on a payment plan, I wrote him four checks to cash each time I was paid. I enjoyed when he moved to the new shop because I could see what he had outside from my front yard. I enjoyed my visits with him, asking questions, his eagerness to help you find just what you needed, the many history lessons, all of the tall tells, the deals of the day, and most importantly waving at him when he passed my house on his drive home. He's been a part of my life for as long as I can remember and a very dear friend to my entire family. He truly was a gift to Hartsville and will live on for decades to come through all of the wonderful pieces of furniture he's supplied. Rest easy sweet man!
