“ I had no idea that John had passed until i ran upon it just a short ago. I had messaged his son sometime back and found out that John was sick. I go way back with John. Back to Walhall, our home town. I had the privledge of not only going to school with John, but also working with him at Ballentine Grocery at Walhalla, and then again at Defore Mill in Clemson SC. I never knew John to be less than a great person. I always considered him to be a friend. I have seen here from reading lots of these messages left by Johns friends that I don't know that they surely saw John down through his life as I did. How can you not love and miss such a person.

“ To all the family: What a great man! There is not enough space for me to include all the adjectives to describe John! Loved and respected by so many!

Father, touch the family with your hands and wrap your arms around them during this time. We know now he is with You and enjoying everlasting life.

“ I loved John. He was a kind man and good to me and my husband. He used to sit in the dark in a chair in my church office and scare me when I came in. I will miss this and him.

Love to Alice and family,

“ Dear Alice, so sorry to hear about John's passing .I still remember watching our Tigers play football ,eating and having such a good time at my brother Jake and sister-in-law Gina's house last year. I remember that John must have thought Gina and I were nuts because we were hollering so loud. It was such a great day, lots of fun and fellowship I know that you will truly miss him. Know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mrs Brandt, John, Robin, and Melanie, I'm so sorry for your loss.. Your father and his yard were the first things people saw when they would drive into our neighborhood, and his yard was a beautiful sight.

I had so much respect for your father, when we spoke throughout the last decades he would always tell a story about the time he spent in the Army and some how through in good advice.

He will be missed but loved forever.

“ Dear Alice and family,

As one of our closest friends in Hartsville, words can't express the sorrow we feel for you and John's loss. He was truly like a big brother with strong Christian principles, great humor, smart, talented, and always giving of himself. God truly brought one of his angels home yesterday.

Peace and God's love,

Harriet and Charlie

“ Mrs.Brandt and family,

So sorry to hear about Mr.Brandt. I really valued the friendship we developed through doing your tv repairs. I can still remember the Clemson sticker he put on the van we had a time with that one. He will be missed and you all will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Alice,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and all the family as you mourn the loss of your dear husband, father, and grandfather, John. We truly have wonderful memories of times shared with both you and John over the years as friends at Our Shepherd Lutheran Church where John's crafting skills are everywhere to be seen. From cabinetry, to the beautiful furniture quality buffets, and the model of OSLC, John shared his talents as we are commanded. We will miss John and pray for your comfort in the days to come.
