I will always have special memories (Pa Winburn is what I called him) from a long time ago. I was at his house as much as mine because Scarlet and I were two peas in a pod back then. And then later on married into the family and he became Uncle JC. My deepest sympathy goes out to the family.

I would like to say God sure did gain a true ANGEL yesterday and I know that John was happy to see his dad again and I'm sure they are telling all kind of stories to each other. JC you were a blessing to our family for many tears and will always be a blessing. Glad have you reunited with your children now. Love always Renee Hill "Chapman".
