“ Libby, Ann, and Julie: I was so sorry to read about your Mom's passing. Can you believe, I was fortunate to see and talk briefly with your Mom only a couple of weeks ago. After so many years, we ran into each other at the Mayflower in Darlington. It was so great to see her - still a pretty lady. Seeing her certainly brought back some fond memories of when you girls were growing up and the wonderful times we had at Fourth Street. May our Lord bless and comfort you during this difficult time and that you are surrounded with love and peace. Will never forget the "Bryant" girls.

“ Dear family, our prayers are with you all. Please know that you can call on us at any time. We pray God's blessings upon you. Hold on to the memories. We will miss Mrs. Johnnie dearly at the church.

In our times of loss, we can sometimes find ourselves overwhelmed with feelings of confusion and sorrow. Hopelessness and despair may well up in our hearts, and it can seem as though comfort is beyond our reach, but as Jesus Christ tells us, “Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.” (Matthew 5:4)
