“ My brother was the best. When we all lived at home he took care of all his sisters. He saw we had everything we needed. He played games with us, bought stuff for us daily, played jokes on us, often at the supper table he would talk about dead animals he had seen in the road knowing I would not be able to eat my piece of fried chicken & of course I would give it to him , & so on....Even after we were all grown & living our separate lives he still tried to help us in so many ways.He helped me move at least 2 or 3 times. Even after the cancer he came to my house & cut down limbs for me. Spent most of the day here. Johnny was a cheerful giver. He loved giving his time to others. Just last week I told him my son wanted to go fishing so much. He said when I get better I will take him fishing. That was so special to me knowing he wanted to keep giving of himself even though he was so sick. He is the best big brother ever & I will miss him so much.
