“Dad it's been a year since you have been gone. I think about you everyday. I never knew it would be this hard. How I wish you were here with me. I know you are in spirit though, because I feel it some days. I visit your grave just about ever week, and keep changing your flowers out on different occasions such as your birthday and holidays. If you could see the beautiful flowers on your monument that makes me think of you. I know you would be smiling. I could see your pretty smile at this very second. There is so much that has happened the first year that you have been gone. I wish there was a way you and I could communicate from earth to heaven. Kendall and Kameron miss you an awful lot too. I don't know who it's been the hardest on me or them. Kendall and Kameron are still doing things that you would have been so very proud of them. Kameron misses your presence at all of his sports activities. He has been plying tennis since April of this year and really enjoys it. I wish you were here to see him play. When he comes with me to visit your grave he always brings a football, baseball or some kind of ball with him to throw near your grave. Kendall is attending college and doing well with that. I know you would be very proud of the both of them like you were when you were here with us. I sometimes look at the stars at night and imagine you're one of those shining down on me. There has been some occasions in the afternoon when I am driving home from work and the sun is shining so pretty and the sky looks like it has an opening up to heaven and I think of you and hoping that I can get a glimpse of you. I know that one day you and I will reunite! I LOVE YOU DAD AND MISS YOU SO MUCH!!!

“ I didn't really know Johnny on a personal level, but every time I saw him I felt like I did. He always greeted me with a smile and small conversation no matter where I saw him. He always made my day by his sweet compliments. I will greatly miss him and his warm smile. I am dearly sorry for your tremendous loss. Johnny is lighting up heaven now, and smiling down on all of us.##imported-begin##hope(hayden) howle & family##imported-end##

“ Dear Ruby, Dicky and I used to always talk to Johnny when we saw him about; however, we did not know he was your son. The last conversation we had was at McDonald's, when he said he was sorry to hear about Dicky's mother's death. Dicky is from the Pine Ridge Community. We have both said that you are so sweet, we hate to see you go through the death of yet another child. Dicky remembers Cookie telling him in grammar school, "What kind of name is Dicky?". My mommy named me 'Cookie' 'cause I'm so sweet." We love you, and would like to come for a visit at your home. Our number is 383-8436. I cannot find your number in the phone book. In the meantime, please know that our prayer at this time is that God will grant you peace for this storm. Lovingly, the Premos###imported-begin###Gladys and Dicky Premo###imported-end##

“ Dear King Family,
We are so sad to hear about Mr. Johnny. We had some good times with him. He always called Cameron "BIG CAM" everytime he seen him, and when they went to get cars together. We will miss seeing him at McDonald's and getting to talk with him. If there is anything we can do we will. We will keep you all in our prayers. God Bless you all during this difficult time.
