We were in Church and Bible Study and Sunday School with Johnny and Deanna and we love them so much and our hearts are broken but we do know that Johnny is with the Lord but this world without Johnny is not going to be the same. He will be dearly missed. Until we meet again dear Johnny. Love and many prayers to sweet Deanna.

“ I remember Johnny so well. He was only a part of our class (HHS Class of 1961) for a few months, but made a lasting impression. I still have a picture of him (somewhere) with his curly, blond hair; wearing a black leather motorcycle jacket, reminiscent of James Dean! Deanna and family, our prayers and thoughts are with you during this Christmas season.
