

Mr. Joseph Melton "Josh" Loflin III

February 24, 1985 - March 8, 2014

Funeral services for Joseph Melton Loflin III "Josh", 29, will be held at 11 am Tuesday, March 11, 2014 at Willow Oaks Farm, 4748 Hartsville Highway, Society Hill, SC 29593. Josh, husband of Drake Rogers Loflin, died Saturday, March 8th, 2014. Born in Clover, SC, he was the son of Mel Loflin and Phoebe O'Toole.

The family will receive friends Monday, March 10th from 5 to 9 pm at Willow Oaks Farm. There will also be a celebration of Josh's life Saturday, March 15th from 2 to 6 pm at 6180 Little Mountain Rd, Clover, SC 29710.

Josh lived and loved life with great joy and deeply cherished his family and his friends. He graduated from Clover High School in 2003 and Clemson University in 2007. Josh was known as "Buttercup" by his fraternity brothers of Alpha Gamma Rho of which he was an active member. Josh was married to his college sweetheart, Drake, whom he adored. He doted endlessly on his niece Callie and nephew Browning. He was employed by Sonoco, where he was a beloved plant manager. Josh was an avid pilot and tree farmer who loved the air as much as the land. He was preceded in death by his best friend Jonathan "Cheese" Pelletier for whom Josh honored by holding an annual "Cheesefest" in Clemson to benefit a memorial scholarship endowment for a current Clemson student that is facing a serious illness. Surviving are his wife, Drake Loflin; father, Mel Loflin and Denise Richards; mother, Phoebe and Gordon O'Toole; sister, Season (Cayce) West; grandmother, Fran Loflin; mother-in-law, Lyrae Rogers; brother-in-laws, Thom

(Amanda) Rogers and Caleb (Anna) Rogers; niece, Callie Joy West; nephew, Browning West and Godchildren, Macey and Taybor Levine, Lock and Rachel Rogers.

He was predeceased by grandparents, Joe Loflin and Bob and Kay Carter. In lieu of flowers, the families ask that you donate to your favorite charity in Josh's memory.

Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is serving the family.

“ I've only talked to Josh a couple of times... but I could tell instantly what type of man he was. A caring, considerate and hard worker. When he came to the hospital to see my husband after his amputation, we talked for a little while and you could tell that if Josh could do anything to help, he would. My husband talked so highly of I and I trust that he is an Angel today, helping his fellow Angels serve the Lord in heaven

andrea samuel-hill - March 16, 2014 at 07:35 PM

“ Buddy. Everyone knew you as Buttercup, and your Sonoco family knew you as Rabbit. I knew you as my brother. I loved you man. I couldn't wait to get to Greenville to help you out. I loved walking in your office and seeing your hair all jacked up because I knew you were freaking out. Our team misses the hell out of you. I had a dream that you called me and started making fun of me about something, I don't remember. Fridays are going to be tough, that's when we told Dewayne that me and you hug each other every Friday before we leave, and it left him speechless. There was never "I", it was always "We". You should have seen the turn out man, there were so many people! Since your passing the team has gotten tighter, and I think Karen and I are going to be real close. I want to keep your charity going, so in my dream tonight just tell me the details. I love you bro, and ill see you in a couple of years, just tell the angels that I am ok. Until next time Mr. Loflin.

“ I did not know Josh but I have known Mel Loflin for over 25 years.. I am very sorry to learn of Josh's passing. No words can describe a loss of a loved one no matter how hard I try. I know the grace of god will repair the hole in the families heart as they prepare to live without Josh in there lives. May the lord protect and guide you thru these very tough times.

“ Josh was known as "buttercup" or "butters" by our fraternity. He was a fine man! I first got to know Josh when he was befriendng a frat brother Johnny Pelletier "cheese" who had terminal cancer. Butters never left his bedside, and later formed a fundraiser to help the Pelletier family raise $ for medical costs known as "Cheesefest" What a man he was. I also had the pleasure of serving on the alumni board with butters and he played an integral role in rebuilding the Agr house that burned down in Clemson. Heaven has gained another saint. My prayers go out to Drake and his family. We love you all just like we loved Josh. May The Lord of the earth comfort and protect you.

The last time I saw him he gave me the biggest hug. He made the world and people happy. It is truly a sad loss. May his family have peace beyond normal. May GOD surround with comfort and love. “ Mel and Pheobe, I don't know if you remember me but i am Ed's first wife, Lisa. When Lindsey told me what happened to Josh I could not hold back the tears. I am so sorry for your loss. When my Dad died (which I know doesn't even begin to be as devastating as what you are going through) I read a book called "To Heaven and Back" by Mary Neal. She is an orthopedic surgeon who died and came back. It helped me so much to know that when my Dad died there was no fear.... Only curiosity and then Love. Sweet Love. Josh is experiencing so much love right now... And he carried his love for all of his family with him. I sincerely pray that God's peace will be upon you soon.

“ Dear Phoebe, I just wanted to say how broken hearted it feels to hear of the loss of Josh, his Father-in-law, and dear friend. I cant imagine the hurt you and his wife and family are feeling right now. My memories of Josh were ones of running around Aunt Kay's house in the summertime digging up worms by the barn to go fishing with Uncle Eddie. Both Season and Josh carried with them your wonderful smiling spirit! Their beauty grew from the inside out! I've never had the privilege of meeting his wife Drake, but they look like they were truly in love! Josh was certain to be very proud to have you and Mel as his parents. Drake, may God touch your heart and comfort you in your darkest hours. Losing two loved ones is unimaginable! You all are in our prayers... Love your cousin, Michele "Campbell" Petersen
