I met Joy when my Aunt Julia worked for the Rambos years ago. I even helped with Joy for a few years. As I watched the video, I remember she loved the song "Country Roads". We would sing it from time to time. My deepest condolences to all of you.

“ Carol Ann and Charlie. Just wanted to let you know that Joy touched the heart of everyone that she met. While working as a nurse at Scott Center, I had the pleasure of getting to know Joy and what a pleasure it was ! She always had a big smile and lots of hugs. Her laughter could melt my heart. Joy was very insightful. When her dad passed away I sat with her and we talked. We always shared "girl secrets." As she began to tell me about her dad she said, " God always takes the prettiest flowers and leaves the ugly weeds behind." She said her dad was a beautiful RED flower now living with Jesus. I believe that Joy is with our heavenly father and not only is she a beautiful flower, Joy Rambo is a BIG bouquet of flowers for she spread so much JOY and LOVE in this world. She touched my life and my heart as I am sure that she touched so many. Joy didn't like "goodbye" when I would leave work for the day. So I will just say as I did before, "I'll see you soon girlfriend. "

“ Carol Ann and Charlie....I am heartbroken about Joy. She was such a sweetheart. I can remember going down to your house to help your Mom with her excercises. Kathy went more than I did but it was always special when I got to go. Joy came into the bank many years ago with some others from where she lived. I spotted her across the lobby and decided I would go over and tell her who I was....I didn't have too. She started calling out my name! I was shocked and asked her if she remembered me and she started shaking her head and reached out for me. That was a very special moment for me that I will never forget. I know it had been many,many years since she had seen me. Keeping you both and your families in my prayers! Lynn

I was a neighbor of the Rambo's. I helped Mrs. Rambo on occasion with Joy. Broke my heart when I read of her passing. This world was blessed to have Joy in it and those who had just a moment with her knew she was special, very special.. God bless the Rambo family.... After all these years I still had her on my mind and heart. When you met her you just simply loved her from that moment on!.. James Johnson
