“ My prayers go out to all my beloved McKenzie family. I have such fond memories of my time spent at the McKenzie home. Joyce was such a loving and caring woman. She was strong, cheerful, and devoted to her family. She took on a task that many women would have run from. She was just a young woman when got married, but she took on the challenge of helping raise a big family. She did it with love for all of them. She treated me just like one of the rest, feeding me, talking to me, and sharing her beautiful smile for all to see. She showed love and compassion to everyone who knew her. She is surely in Heaven and rejoicing with everyone from her past. May God comfort you all during this time. Love to all of you!
