“Joyce was my aunt, my mother’s baby sister, and always held a special place in my heart. She was only 14 years old when I was born and was a beautiful example of a Christian woman, offering a listening ear and wise counsel. We lived miles apart but we talked often and her support, encouragement and Biblical perspective was always a blessing to me. She was a pearl of great treasure and will be greatly missed by many.”

“Mr Don, so sorry for your loss of Mrs Joyce. I was Vander Lee’s daughter when y’all live in Whiteville and went to Church of Christ. I was a teenager, I often thought of y’all. My mother and daddy thought the world of y’all. Will keep you in my prayers.
